Declares Brawl at Chicago Has Checked Cause of People the World Over.

OPPOSE A THIRD TERM.

Attacks Combination of Republicans and 'Interests' and Demands Tariff Revision.

BALTIMORE, June 25 .- On taking his place as Temporary Chairman Judge Parker said in part

"We meet while the hills yet echo to wild cries of liar, thief and traitor, and furious walls of fraud, bribery, treachery and conruption; and our ears are weary with the din of the articulate shricking and passionate vilification of the most shameful brewl of our political

'Our candidates are without exception men of such lofty mien that we meet immune from the distemper which seized the Chicago Convention and privilege to discharge a solemn public duty calmdeliberately, seriously.

"The cause of government by the peo-pie the world over has been materially checked by the disgraceful brawl which terminated in the bediam of Chicago Every good citizen has been put to shame by the brutality and the abuse tween a President and an ex-President. Gratitude, friendship, party loyalty, pagotten in the tusple.

WARNING AGAINST A THIRD be found in the tariff statutes and in TERM.

"The assault upon the unwritten pro hibition against a third term made in the wild acramble for the Republican nomination warns us of the vital nec essity of incorporating in our Constitution a safeguard against repeated terms, "The man who split his party at Chicago once recognized the third-term tradition and acknowledged its application to his situation.

"Would the man who threw his hat in the ring and sought to alug his opponent over the ropes in his fight for s achievement? Clearly his lust of purpose a revision of the tariff downthird term rest satisfied with its limitation. A third term would but have whetled his desire for more, and as the terms slipped away each re-newal would discover greater injury to newal would discover greater injury to our Constitution, to the form of government established under it, and to the inauguration of the next President.

every legal curb on his imperious will. "This is the man who menaced us action of the electorate of Canada, of with an increase of Federal power by with an increase of Federal power by usurption of States' rights and without authority of constitutional amendment; the man who took the Isthmus of Panama, 'and let Congress debate about it afterwards;' the man who, having enough money to send the fleet op its famous cruise to the Pacific, sent it without sanction of Congress, leaving it to appropriate the money for the return when Congress desmed that necessary.

'This is the man who advocated Federal incorporation for the increase of power at Washington and the lightening of legal burdens on the corporations; the man who authorised the absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron any by the Steel Trust; the man who, by many such drastic acts, and mbered words, has sought to baster down our statutory and conal safeguards.

SHALL WE MEXICANIZE OUR COUNTRY?

"He who runs may read the danger that threatens the country ruled by such a man. Do we envy Mexico her thirty years of wedded life, or the war the divorce from Diaz precipitated, the end of which no man may prophesy? The way to prevent a life series of terms is to prevent the present attempt to capture the office for a third term. One of our opportunities in this campaign is to lead the fight against a third term. That opportunity should appeal to every drop of patriotic blood flowing in our veins.

"We need a definite constitutional limitation which shall prevent imperialistic souls from forcing personal continuation in office for long periods

Delegates and Spectators Badly Handled, but Big Show Starts Late With Enthusiasm.

(From a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.) CONVENTION HALL, BALTIMORE, June 25.-With usual Democratic leisure the delegates were slow in assembling to-day. One thing that delayed them was a rain storm that started in a drizzle at 8 o'clock in the morning and developed into a terrific downpour at 10.30 o'clock.

Another factor that made for delay in getting to the Convention Hall was the difficulty in getting anything to cat. The hotel dining rooms were simply pushed out of business at the breakfast hour, and it took half an hour to an hour to get soft boiled eggs. The smaller restaurants where negro waiters are employed were as badly off as the hotels. The Baltimore folk furnished the convention a robust and excellent band which entertained the crowd agreeably while the tardy delegates were sifting into their

READ BY JEROME. The testimony of Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw was read. She had testified as to the conduct of Thaw after his return from Paris, where he had taken the jaunt with Evelyn. He occupied a room close to hers and she had heard hin sob. She entered the room and found him crying. He told her of a young girl who had been ruined by a man in New York, and she had responded that that was not his affair.

Mrs. Thaw said that he was with her at the Thanksgiving service in their church and as the choir was singing Kipling's "Recessional," he wept. On their way home he looked over at the little church where the Nesbit's had attended service and said that if it had not been for that man White Evelyn might be with them.
